THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

June 12, 1848.

Read the following letter.

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

I transmit herewith, for the information of Congress, official reports received from the Major Commanding the Army on the Mexican frontier, covering a detailed report of the operations of the army in that quarter, and particularly of the various engagements between the American and Mexican forces.

JAMES K. POLK.

Washington, June 12, 1848.

WAR DEPARTMENT, June 11, 1848.

I respectfully submit, herewith, reports of Major General Taylor, and accompanying documents, giving a detailed account of the various military operations of the army in the Mexican frontier, which have since the 25th of September, and also of the movements of the various regiments.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant.

W. L. MARSH.

Secretary of War.

To the President.
